

Molemole Municipality

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT STRATEGY - 2020/21

Table of Contents

1. Introduction.....	3
2. Purpose	3
3. Goals and Objectives of the Molemole HRM Strategy	4
4. Rational.....	4
5. Legislative Framework	5
6. Considerations	6
7. Definitions of terms and words:	6
8. Application	7
9. Guiding Principles	7
10. HR Development Plan	8
11. Purpose of the HRD Plan.....	8
12. Objectives of the HRD Plan	9
13. Specific Role of HRD.....	9
14. Assignment of Employment Functions, Duties and Powers	10
15. Appointment of Family Members of Employees	11
16. GENERAL CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT	11
17. DESIGNATION OF POSTS TO BE FILLED IN TERMS OF SECTION 57 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT: MUNICIPAL SYSTEMS ACT	11
18. CREATING NEW PERMANENT POSITIONS	12
19. Creating a temporary positions.....	13
20. Abolishing existing permanent positions.....	13
21. HR Policy Development	13
22. Head of Department (HOD)	14
23. Human Resources Practitioners	14
24. Skills Development Facilitators.....	14
25. Municipal Training Committee	15
26. Middle Managers	15
27. Every Employee is responsible for	15
28. Disclaimer.....	16
29. Approval of HRM Strategy	16

1. Introduction

An HR strategy aims at integrating a municipal's culture, its employees and system by coordinating a set of actions to get the required municipal goals. Therefore, it must be aligned to municipal's mission, vision and goals. It is also a designation for long-term plan created to achieve objectives in the field of human resource and human capital management and development in Molemole Local Municipality. It helps to unify and direct the behavior and actions of all people and their overall development in accordance with the needs of the organization. It allows a meaningful planning and management of all work with human resources

- It sets out the overall system of recruitment - Defines processes, responsibilities and requirements on recruitment and staff selection
- Defines requirements on staff training and qualification development
- Establishes an overall system of HR development (processes, rules, responsibilities)
- Defines the way of management of work performance, motivating and rewarding people, social programs and employee benefits
- Defines working conditions, labor relations and influences the way of organizing

Furthermore, the strategy, processes and procedures are a must have for every functional institution or business with the purpose of preserving its ability to serve the public, clients, attract and retain satisfied employees, conducive work environment and to reach institutional set objectives through logical and consistent management decision making process; further, that they serve as:

- Basic communications tool;
- Staff and management induction and development resource;
- Formal policy framework within which the municipality can make decisions on important or sensitive issues in a fair and consistent manner; and
- A written documentation of the Municipality's commitment to its employees, positive labour relations, health and safety.

2. Purpose

- The purpose of this Human Resources Strategy is to set out the normative framework of human resources management within the Molemole Local Municipality.
- This document reflects the values and principles that the Municipality subscribes to and that must be applied in the day-to-day administration of personnel and the interpretation of the policies as adopted by the municipality.

- The framework contained in this document governs human resources management in the Municipality and designed to promote fairness in human resources management practices and procedures.
- This document endeavors to suggest a uniform and coherent approach to all HRD matters in the Molemole Local Municipality.
- It further serves to give direction on the implementation imperatives with regard to the provisions of the national skills development strategy and skills development act. This will ensure an inclusive and integrated approach towards organizational and people development.
- This strategic document is geared towards transforming the Molemole Local Municipality into a truly learning organization where:
 - The strategies, structure and culture of the organization become part of the learning system.
 - The learning of all employees is facilitated and the organization continuously transforms itself.
 - A willingness to accept that learning occurs continuously at all levels and needs to flow freely to where its need is displayed.

3. Goals and Objectives of the Molemole HRM Strategy

- To identify and devise plans to deal with the critical factors that affect and have effect of the management of the human resource aspect of the municipality;
- To implement plans that will contribute to the creation of a competitive and able workforce;
- To serve as a long-term strategic blueprint that will guide and inform the management of staff;
- To create cordial and professional relationship between and among staff, management and Councilors; and
- To serve as a general framework that provides a perspective for selecting specific policies and procedures for the municipality.

4. Rational

- In developing this HR Strategy, the Molemole Local Municipality illuminates through the statement of agreed intent that clearly and unequivocally sets out its views with respect to particular administrative and operational matters.

- This Human Resources Strategy is meant to serve as a framework of a set of principles and rules that provide direction to the Municipality in order to improve its efficiency and competence.
- It is a guide for Managers and staff to have a good idea of the Council's expectations regarding certain basic issues pertaining to employment, operations and employees.
- The guidelines as positioned in this the Human Resources Strategy, should not be seen as cast in stone but subject to the statutory provisions and amendments relating to the Municipality and local government in general.
- Provisions of this strategy document should be applied with discretion and flexibility, and be seen as a cornerstone for behavior, processes and practices of all employees within the Municipality.
- The Human Resources Strategy has been compiled in an enabling spirit and sets out the processes and procedures relating to employment within the Municipality.
- This document therefore contains the processes, procedures and work atmosphere directives that make up the method in which Molemole Local Municipality carries out all the functions and its business.

5. Legislative Framework

In compiling this Human Resources Strategy, reference was made to the following statutes:

- Employment Equity Act No. 55 of 1998 as amended;
- Labour Relations Act No. 66 of 1995 as amended;
- Basic Conditions of Employment Act No. 75 of 1997 as amended;
- Municipal Finance Management Act 56 of 2003 as amended;
- Local Government Laws Amendment Act 51 of 2002
- Local Government: Municipal Systems Amendment Act 44 of 2003 and subsequent Amendments
- Skills Development Act No. 97 of 1998 as amended;
- Human Resource Development Strategy for South Africa (HRDSA) 2010 – 2030
- Regulations on the Disciplinary Code and Procedures for Senior Managers;
- The National Skills Development Strategy III (NSDS III);
- White Paper on Affirmative Action in the Public Service and
- White Paper on Human Resource Management in the Public Service.

6. Considerations

In developing its Human Resource Management Strategy, the Molemole Local Municipality considered the following factors:

- The Municipality's vision, mission statement;
- Strategic objectives as reflected in the approved IDP;
- Staff demographics and realities;
- The external factors that affect and could have effect of the implementation of the HRM Strategy;
- Specific and broad expectations of the stakeholders; i.e. Councilors, staff and the community.

That the strategy and its propositions subscribe to the laws of South Africa. The Municipality is an equal opportunity employer that values diversity in the workplace. Molemole Local Municipality is an organization that wishes to reflect the demographics of the country and promotes gender equality and sensitivity in the workplace.

7. Definitions of terms and words:

In this document, unless the context indicates otherwise:

- All other terms contained in this document are as defined in the Constitution of the South African Local Government
- "bargaining council" means the South African Local Government Bargaining Council and includes the division of the bargaining council in whose area the Municipality falls;
- "Basic Conditions of Employment Act" (BCEA) means the Basic Conditions of Employment Act 1997 (Act No 75 of 1997);
- "collective agreement" means a collective agreement as contemplated in the Labour Relations Act 1995 (Act No 55 of 1995);
- "council" means the council of the Molemole Local Municipality and includes any political structure, political office-bearer or employee of the Municipality lawfully acting in its stead;
- "employee" means an employee of the Municipality;
- "geographical relocation" means the physical and spatial relocation of a job and the employee performing that job from one place within the Municipality to another place within the Municipality and "relocate" has a corresponding meaning;
- "HRD" means the Human Resources Development;
- "HRM" means the Human Resource Management;

- “HRMS” means Human Resources Management Strategy;
- “immediate family member” means the mother, father, husband, wife, child and siblings of an employee;
- “mayor” means Councillor elected as the Mayor of the Municipality in terms of section 55 of the Municipal Structures Act or a person acting in his/her stead;
- “Labour Relations Act” means the Labour Relations Act 1995 (Act No 66 of 1995);
- “Municipal Manager” means a person appointed in terms of section 82 of the Municipal Structures Act, including a person acting in his/her stead or in terms of a power delegated in writing to her/him by the Municipal Manager;
- “Municipal Systems Act” means the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No 33 of 2000) and related Amendments;
- “Municipality” means Molemole Local Municipality;
- “MLM” means Molemole Local Municipality
- Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa • Words importing one gender include the other genders.

8. Application

The strategy covers all employees, managers, senior managers, directors as well as the heads of departments in Molemole Local Municipality.

- This Human Resources Strategy shall apply to all employees employed by the Molemole Local Municipality who fall within the registered scope of the Bargaining Council in the Republic of South Africa;
- The related processes and procedures will be regarded as the required practice, providing a clear systematic method and hierarchy for implementing Molemole Local Municipality goals, strategy and decisions.
- In this Human Resources Strategy, the procedures will describe a logical sequence of activities or processes that are to be followed to complete a task or function in a correct and consistent manner across the company operations.

9. Guiding Principles

The Molemole Local Municipality recognizes the contributions of its employees as significant assets and treats each individual employee fairly and consistently in all matters, with a uniform application of the following human resources philosophies:

- Human resources are best allocated to achieve optimum productivity and efficiency.
- Pay and benefits offered are fair, equitable and competitive.
- Employees are always encouraged to well-equip themselves for the present job and future development of the Municipality
- Reward is based on merit. High performers are given priority to take up more responsible positions.
- Two-way communications between employees and the management are promoted as a means of building mutual understanding and trust.
- Protect the interests of staff and those of the Municipality
- Correct behavior rather than to punish through this strategy
- Striving at all times to act ethically, transparently, equitably and within the rules of the Labour Law and the Basic Conditions of Employment Act,
- Workplace health and safety is given top priority to protect human health and enable employees to deliver their best performance,
- The protection of human rights in employment is supported by the Municipality, as guided by relevant locally and internationally accepted principles;
- The principle of Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, the Bill of Human Rights and rule of law.

10. HR Development Plan

- It is the policy of the Molemole Local Municipality to unceasingly strengthen and develop its Human Resources in order to meet the challenges of its development and support various Municipal services and business mandates, addressing identified delivery constraints from time to time; and
- Within the context of the Molemole Local Municipality, HRD refers to formal and explicit activities that will enhance the ability of all individuals to reach their full potential. By enhancing the skills, knowledge and abilities of individuals, the municipality's HRD serves to improve the productivity of people internally and externally, whether these are in formal or informal settings. Increased productivity and improvements to the skills base in a country supports economic development, as well as social development.

11. Purpose of the HRD Plan

- The purpose of the Human Resource Development Plan will deal with the people management within the Municipality; take on the responsibility streamlining human and operational resources, roles and contracts;

- The Municipality has developed this strategic blueprint on HRD in order to move HR from the backroom to the boardroom by bringing out the best in Municipal employees and thus contribute to the success of the Municipal area; and
- This strategy aims at building a competitive Municipality; include overall management complement in strategic human resources management, management of transformation and change, management of firm infrastructure and management of employee contribution.

12. Objectives of the HRD Plan

This HRD Plan is aimed at addressing the following objectives:

- Help give impetus to the implementation of internships and learner-ships;
- Ensures an integrated approach to HRD matters and inclusiveness;
- Enhances greater uniformity in HRD practices;
- Create better opportunities for skills development and individual development for all personnel;
- Ensure greater transparency in HRD decision-making and practices; and
- Help create a conducive environment for organizational and personal development and growth.

13. Specific Role of HRD

- 13.1 Strategic business partner – the HRD of Molemole Local Municipality will factor in additional policies on employee welfare and new or changing competency requirements to support developed Municipal strategies. Through collaborating with management across the board, HRD will take on the role of expert task and assist in strengthening the relationship between employees and senior management.

13.2 Change agent – HRD will lead in actively building and maintaining a corporate culture that embraces people development.

13.3 Employee champion – HRD shall create a productive work environment, ensure effective communication, and manage workforce relations.

13.4 Manager of personnel acquisition and development – it will define, generate, continuously reinforce, and sustain skills pool, knowledge, abilities, attitudes, and desired behaviors.

13.5 Manager of processing, compliance, and reporting – HRD function will align its strategic and tactical plans with those of the Council, enforce compliance with laws, create policies, and execute administrative processes, all in a cost-effective.

14. Assignment of Employment Functions, Duties and Powers

Council shall appoint a Municipal Manager and managers directly accountable to the municipal manager. The Municipal Manager as head of administration is, subject to the directions contained in this document, in respect of human resources management responsible and accountable for, amongst other things, the formation and development of an economical, effective, efficient and accountable administration which:

- Is equipped to implement the Municipality's integrated development plan;
- operates in accordance with the Municipality's performance management system;
- is responsive to the needs of the community to participate in the affairs of the Municipality;
- the appointment of staff other than managers directly accountable to the Municipal Manager, subject to the Employment Equity Act, 1998 (Act 55 of 1998);
- the management, effective utilization and training of staff;
- the maintenance of the discipline of staff;
- the promotion of sound labour relations;
- compliance by the Municipality with applicable labour legislation;
- approving a staff establishment for the Municipality;
- providing a job description for each post on the staff establishment;
- attaching to the posts in the establishment, except the posts of municipal manager and managers directly accountable to the municipal manager;
- the remuneration and other conditions of service as may be determined in accordance with any applicable labour legislation; and
- Establishing a process or mechanism to regularly evaluate the staff establishment and, if necessary, review the staff establishment and the remuneration and conditions of service, subject to any applicable collective agreement.

Ethical considerations whenever:-

- the council must make an appointment and a candidate for appointment is a family member, business associate or partner of a Councillor, that Councillor must recuse himself from any proceedings of the council where such appointment is considered;
- the municipal manager or a departmental head must make an appointment and a candidate for appointment is a family member, business associate or partner of the municipal manager or that departmental head, the municipal manager or the departmental head concerned must recuse himself from any proceedings where such appointment is considered. The municipal manager must appoint another senior employee from the relevant department and another departmental head to consider such an appointment.
- An applicant who canvasses support with a view to be transferred or promoted to another post shall be disqualified for such promotion or transfer.

15. Appointment of Family Members of Employees

- Employment of immediate family members and relatives of employees must, as far as possible, be avoided;
- No employee may participate in any decision, which may directly benefit or be to the detriment of an immediate family member or relative;
- No employee may be appointed, promoted or transferred in such a manner that he would supervise or be subordinate to an immediate family member or relative; and
- Whenever a family member or relative of an employee applies for a vacant position, the manager responsible for human resources management must point out the content of this strategic document to the parties involved, including the person or persons who must make the appointment.

16. GENERAL CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- Appointment will only be made to an incumbent who meets all the set requirements and have undergone all the due processes as determined by the municipality and as contained in the recruitment and selection policy.

17. DESIGNATION OF POSTS TO BE FILLED IN TERMS OF SECTION 57 OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT: MUNICIPAL SYSTEMS ACT

- The Municipal Manager and Managers directly accountable to the municipal manager must be appointed in terms of a written fixed term employment contract and subject to the conclusion of an annual performance agreement as contemplated in section 57 of the Municipal Systems Act (2000); and the Municipal Manager must initiate and facilitate the process of filling the approved and funded posts in line with the approved organizational structure of the Municipality.

- The staff establishment consists of:
 - Positions on the permanent establishment; and
 - The permanent establishment contains all positions that must be filled on a permanent and fixed contract basis.

The database must contain the following information relating to each position:

- The designation/title of the position;
- The level of the position.
- Details regarding any and all allowances that are linked to the position including any stand-by, transport, telephone and other allowances;
- The leave entitlements linked to the position;
- The budget vote from which the position will be financed;
- Whether the position is permanent or fixed contract
- Whether the position is an entry post or a promotion post;
- The department or other organizational unit to which the position is assigned; and
- Any other relevant information.

18. CREATING NEW PERMANENT POSITIONS

- A departmental head wishing to create a new permanent position in his department must submit a written application, via the manager responsible for human resources management, to the municipal manager. An application for creating a new permanent position must contain the following information: The details of the department or section where the post must be created.
- The details of the department or section where the post must be created.
- A full explanation of the functions and responsibilities of the proposed post.
- The need for the post.
- The alternative solutions that were considered for performing the proposed functions allocated to the position, including re-organization of work rather than creating the position.
- The reasons why each of the alternatives have been rejected.
- A full explanation of the estimated costs of the position for the Municipality during the next three years.

- If provision has not been made in the budget for the proposed position, an indication of the budget vote from which the position will be financed.
- Whether the position must be full or part-time.
- Whether the position must be filled on a permanent or fixed term basis.
- The municipal manager's decision with regard to an application for creating a new permanent position is final.

19. Creating a temporary positions

- The municipal manager may, after consultation with the managers responsible for human resources management and financial management and the relevant departmental head, create one or more temporary positions on the establishment.
- A temporary position may be created to deal with a temporary increase in the Municipality's work due to:
 - a disaster;
 - the allocation of money to the Municipality for the continuation or completion of a specific project not provided for in the budget;
 - a backlog in work; or
 - special programmes established or managed by the Municipality to combat poverty and unemployment.
- A temporary position ceases to exist when the reason why the position was created ceases to exist and the person occupying that position is released in that position is released on the day that the position ceases to exist.
- The municipal manager's decision with regard to the creation and abolishing of temporary positions is final.
-

20. Abolishing existing permanent positions

- This exercise rest with the Accounting Officer in consultation with the relevant Head of Department.

21. HR Policy Development

- Management shall engage in a process that will result in the development and review of among others, the following HRM Policies:

Recruitment and selection

- Leave policy
- Overtime policy

- Remuneration policy
- Acting policy
- Staff attraction and retention/succession policy
- Subsistence and travelling policy
- Employee bursary scheme
- Health and Safety policy
- Training and development policy
- Staff regulation

22. Head of Department (HOD)

- The Head of Department is responsible for the effective training of staff and the efficient management and administration of his/her department. Furthermore every head of department is responsible and accountable for:
 - Ensures that budget is made available for skill development of employees.
 - Ensures that budget is made available for skill development of employees.
 - Ensures that national standards of training and development initiatives are maintained
 - Ensures that the workplace is converted into a learning environment.
 - Ensure that the workforce participates in the learnership and skills programmes.

23. Human Resources Practitioners

- Human resource practitioners are responsible for:
 - Facilitate the development and implementation of personal development plans of staff;
 - Facilitate the identification of accelerated development programme candidates as well as the development and implementation of accelerated development programmes for staff with potential.

24. Skills Development Facilitators

- The key responsibilities of skills development facilitator (SDF) are:
 - To investigate and identify patterns of people development at a strategic level
 - To identify key strategy key strategy skills shortages and priorities
 - To analyze and report on specific skills requirement issues that may be relevant to the development of strategic objectives.
 - To identify strategic opportunities for learner ship development and the promotion of national skills development priorities

- To develop structures and systems for effective skills planning
- To facilitate the development of workplace skills plans(WSPs)
- To submit workplace skills to LGSETA
- To facilitate and co-ordinate training committee meetings
- To assist the department in completing key reporting documentation as required by LGSETA
- To advise the department on quality assurance requirements as set by SAQA
- To facilitate the implementation of quality assurance measures • To serve as a contact between the department and the LGSETA
- To conduct annual skills audits.

25. Municipal Training Committee

The functions of the training committee are as follows:

- Municipal wide consultations
- To assist with the development of WSPs
- To inform all employees on the development of WSPs and skills promotion
- To collate and assist in the collection of relevant information
- To report on progress regarding the implementation of WSP
- To meet regularly and be informed about ongoing skills planning issues

26. Middle Managers

- Every middle manager is responsible for;
 - Ensure that all employees under his/her authority are given the opportunity to learn within the departmental career development framework.
 - Ensure that there is an effective transfer of learning from the training programmes to the workplace
 - Actively involving themselves with career planning, coaching and mentoring in consultation with employees to develop them to their full potential and ensuring that they are available for appointment in increasingly responsible positions that become available in the public service.

27. Every Employee is responsible for

- Determining with his/her supervisor, training and development needs and personal developmental plans

- Demonstrate a willingness to learn and grow through work experience
- Accepting responsibility and taking the initiative for his/her training and development
- Taking full advantage of the training and development opportunities available to his/ her
- Applying the knowledge and skills learnt to improve his/her work performance.

28. Disclaimer

- Whereas the Molemole Local Municipality wholeheartedly subscribes to the ideas, processes and procedures described herein, they are not terms or conditions of employment;
- This HR Strategy is to acquaint employees, Managers and Councilors with the Municipality's procedures, policies and protocols;
- Information contained in this Human Resources Strategy is to be used as a general reference.
- Human Resource Strategy may be changed by Council, or any person delegated, as deemed necessary.
- This strategy does not provide contractual rights and is not intended to convey a guarantee of continued employment.
- The Municipality reserves the right to modify, revoke, suspend, terminate, or change any or all such plans, policies or procedures, in whole or in part, at any time, with or without prior notice, because of reasonable limitations, changing laws or institutional requirements, and other conditions or causes;
- This strategy is not intended to create, nor is it to be construed to constitute a contract between the Municipality and any one or all of its clients, stakeholders and employees;
- To the extent that any part of this HR Strategy (Processes and Procedures) conflicts with any Legislation, the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Labour Relations Act and the Basic Conditions of Employment Act shall govern.

29. Approval of HRM Strategy

Signature
Initial & Surname	PAYA ME
Designation	MAYOR
Council Resolution Number	5.1.5/26/06/20
Council Date	26/06/2020