PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

6 July 2015

The Mogwadi Driving License Testing Centre (DLTC) is back in service as from today Tuesday 7 July 2015 after operations were suspended for a period of six weeks due to a robbery which resulted in damages. The Regulation and Compliance Directorate at the Department of Transport did an inspection on Friday the 3rd July 2015, and following this session, a go ahead was given to resume with operations.

The station has resumed operation from today and community members can visit the station for their licensing and registration services, and testing for learners and drivers licenses.

Interviews and enquiries can be arranged with the Communications Ms. Morongwa Pholoba on 0714451892 or via email at pholobama@molemole.gov.za
